There are some trespasses for which we need forgiveness not only from God but from many. Many had multiple abilities, but I thought it might be interesting to have different characters with specific gifts...gifts that could help solve a mystery. And the most gratifying part of all this is that the people in her life who were the source of her pain and suffering for so long finally see the error of their ways. That way of cheating the devil is a thing which every honest sinner will be ashamed of. How can you cope, if this happens to you.
